Friends

Forever young

Always will belong

Together.

Childhood is gone;

Soon, like a morning dream

Only memories will remain.

A place that you were a part,

A group of friends,

Now we step across a line

Climbing a separate mountain

Becoming more than what we are,

But still a long way to go.

We'll thank these sheltered years

Where our first joys remain

Friends forever.

"Uh, Oh!

"Mommy, help me!"

Oh, the power of bubbles!

"What you lookin' at?"

Oh, I wonder what this is?

"Guess who I am laughing at?"

"I do what I can!"

"Arr!"

"Huh?"

"Ha, Ha, Ha!"

Graduating from high school is an exciting time in your life. It is hard to believe that four years ago you were freshmen in high school. I believe in each of you, and I urge you to continue to set goals and strive to meet them. Thomas Jefferson once said, "Nothing can stop the man with the right mental attitude from achieving his goal; nothing on earth can help the man with the wrong mental attitude." Good luck and may God bless you as you leave here and start the next stage of your life.

Wayne Blount

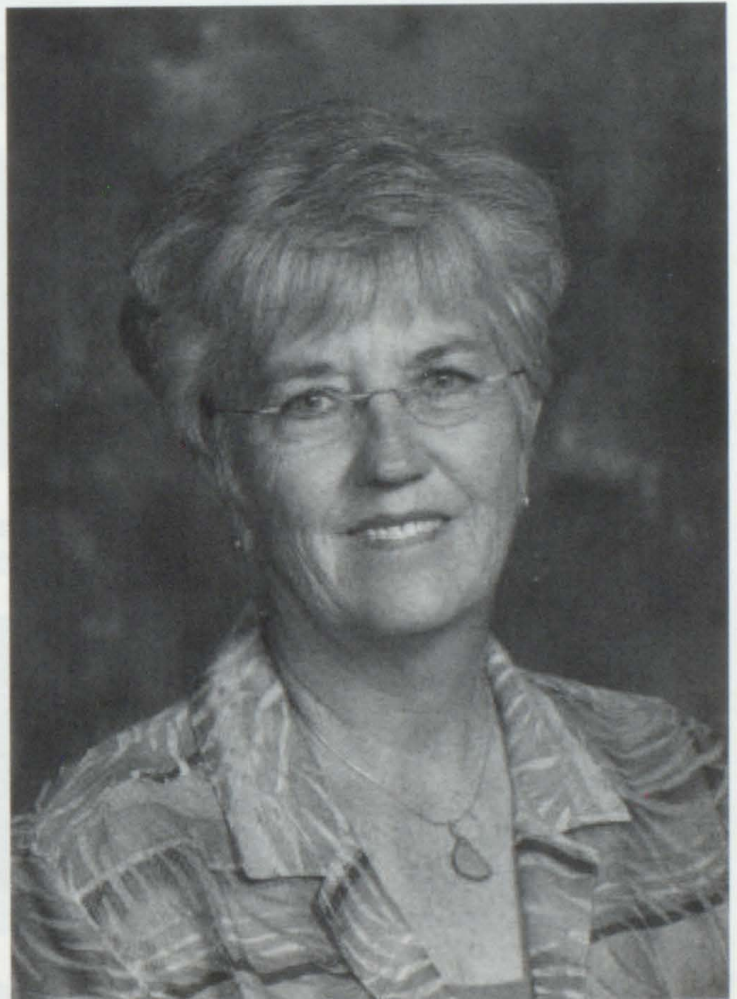

ZELDA BILBO Principal

To the Graduating Seniors of 2006:

It is true that everything in life happens for a purpose, and always for our own good. If you think about it, all our past experiences actually happened to bring us to where we are today, and it is always for the good. All the past experiences make you a better person. So, whatever challenges that you may face today, consider it happening to bring you to the next level.

You are embarking upon a new phase of your life. The choice of direction marks the emergence of all the talents, goals, and aspirations that you have amassed throughout your high school years. May God richly bless each of you and good luck.
