SENIORS 2016

Times have changed from Kindergarten, to present day
Very few things stay the same.
People age and fade away
but memories manage to stay

We'll remember recess at lunch.
Playing tag, red rover and anything else that dealt with our bunch.
It made the time spent short,
But of course nap-time was the worst.

Jr. High was a pain, always seeming to be scrambling for our brains.
Man, things sure have changed

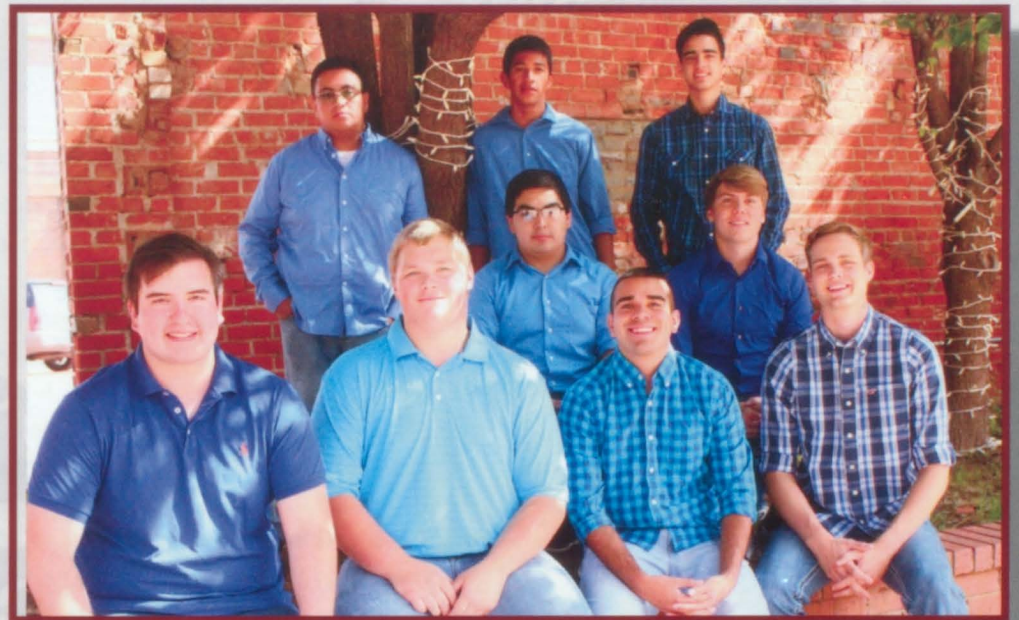

No longer needing a guiding hand
No longer worrying about the tasks at hand
Life has a way of sorting itself out.

Senior year is here.
We're taking the stage
We set our aim
No longer a child, but a growing star.
Our future's bright, finding who we are.

We let our caps fly
As we say our final goodbyes
& first hello's
This is it guys;
Let's GO!

Congratulations to Our Baby Girl,

Angelica, we love you very much and are so proud of you. We know you will aim for the stars, for you were born a fighter so the sky is the limit. Remember graduation is the end of high school, a tough journey; however, it's the beginning of a beautiful new journey. God has truly blessed you with unique talents and abilities. And he will never give you more than you can handle. So remember you are Braver than you Believe, Stronger than you seem, Smarter than you Think and LOVED more than you know.

Love You Always,

Mom and Dad

A young man with dark hair and a mustache is smiling and looking towards the camera. He is wearing a white long-sleeved hoodie with blue accents on the hood and cuffs, and blue denim jeans. He is standing outdoors in front of a light-colored brick wall. There are green plants and a purple-leafed bush in the foreground. The overall scene is bright and cheerful.

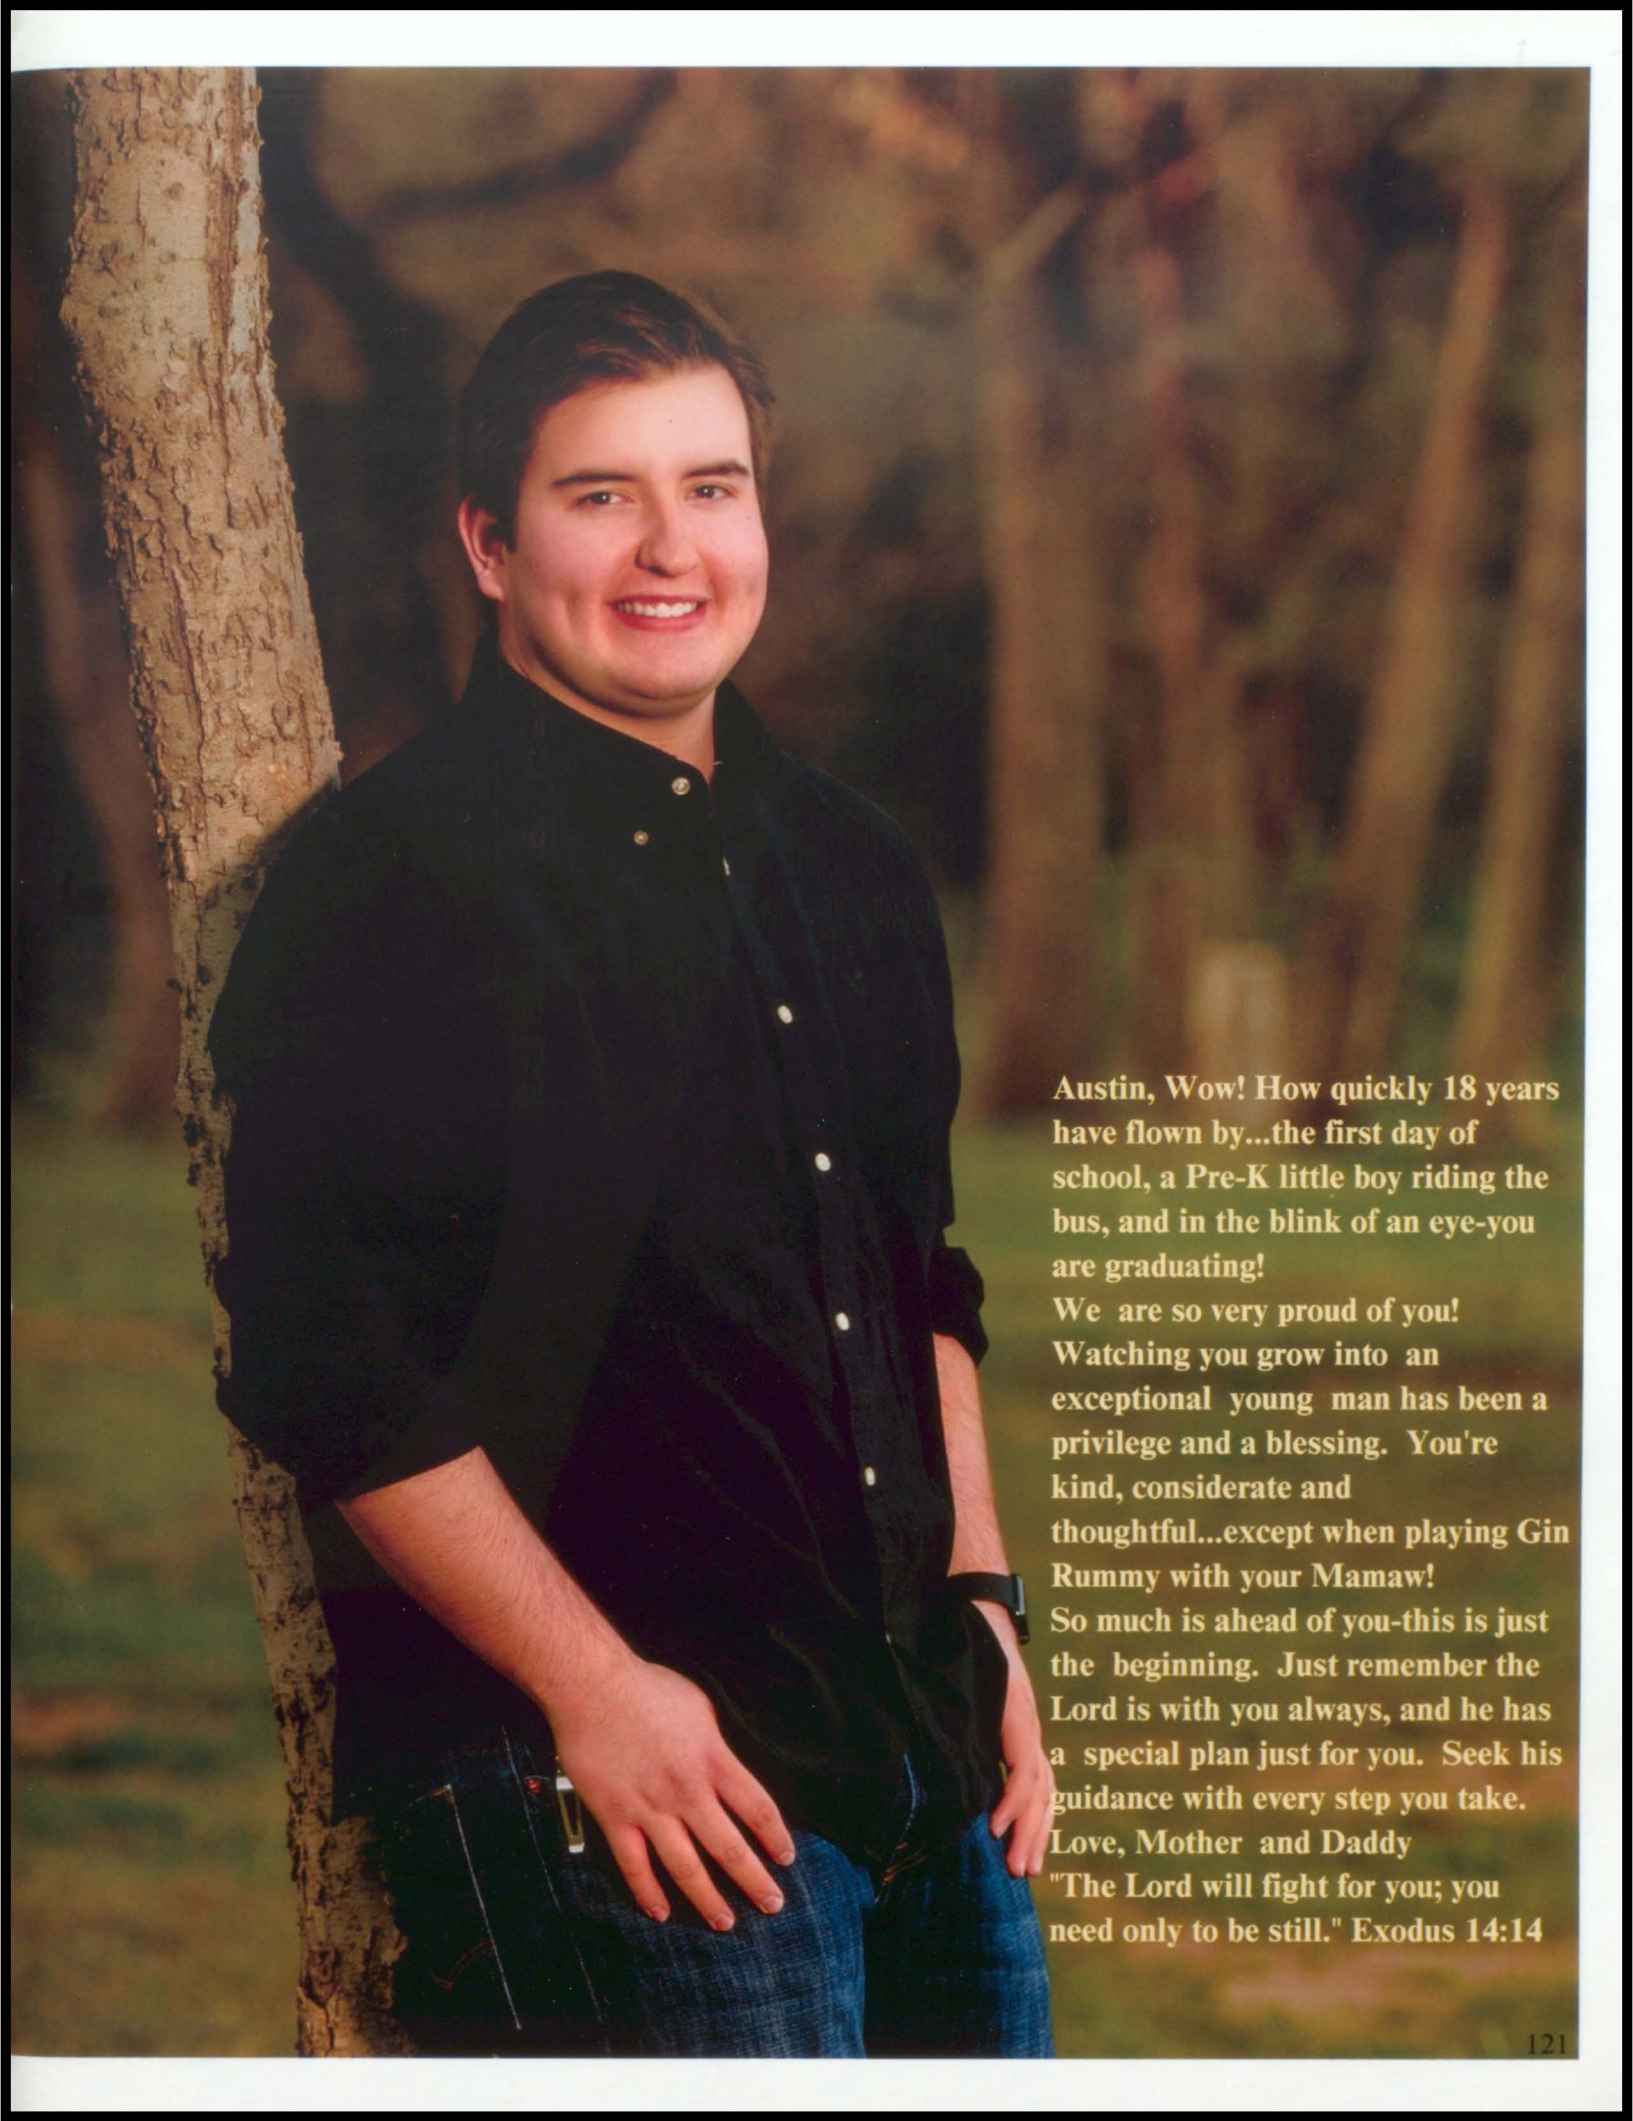

To my oldest son who is all grown up. From the moment I first held you in my arms I knew our time together would be for a short time. I knew that one day you would be all grown up & ready to begin a new life, and now that time has come. I've watched you grow up ,always full of wonder & life.

You've been a joy and a blessing. I thank God to have such a great son. No matter what life has thrown at you in your 18 years of life, you've never given up. You've pushed forward and succeeded to become a strong, young man. I'm very proud of you. God has his hands on you, so stay strong, never give up, take time to pray, never stop believing in yourself. I know you will become the best person you can be, and will succeed in all that you do.

Love,
Mom.

We are very proud of you. Go for your dreams. May God be with you, always. We love you,

Mema & Grandpa

Austin, Wow! How quickly 18 years have flown by...the first day of school, a Pre-K little boy riding the bus, and in the blink of an eye-you are graduating!

We are so very proud of you! Watching you grow into an exceptional young man has been a privilege and a blessing. You're kind, considerate and thoughtful...except when playing Gin Rummy with your Mamaw!

So much is ahead of you-this is just the beginning. Just remember the Lord is with you always, and he has a special plan just for you. Seek his guidance with every step you take.

Love, Mother and Daddy

"The Lord will fight for you; you need only to be still." Exodus 14:14

Once upon a time we were but three But your dad, brother and I, we had a dream.

A sweet little girl with smiling eyes
Whose joy and laughter would light up our lives.

And so the LORD, in his infinite wisdom, chose you for us.

HE loaned a precious angel for us to raise and to love.

You, Katy, have always been a blessing
And a cherished source of pride.

You've brought so much happiness to that once empty space in our lives.

We can't thank heaven enough for making you our little girl.

Now that you're about to spread your wings and take flight, sweet angel, remember to keep your spirit as pure as your name would imply.

And with goodness and grace your only limit is the sky.

Congratulations,
Love Mom, Dad, Cody and Cassie

"You have brains in your head. You have feet in your shoes. You can steer yourself any direction you choose. You're on your own. And you know what you know. And YOU are the one who'll decide where to go..."
Dr. Seuss, Oh, The Places You'll Go!

Colby,

This is the day you have been preparing for your entire life. From the time you took your first steps, it was a time of independence. You were getting ready along the way to be on your own to be you. Now is the time for you to do what you have been dreaming about. To live your life to the fullest. There will be times that you are knocked down and will have to get back up and start again. That is what life is all about. It is about teaching you. You will always be learning in everything you do. We are so proud of the man you have become. You have tried so many things in school and you learned what you liked and found things you were really good at. I know you are ready to start your own life and we are proud of you and will always be there to support you. We are your biggest fans...

We love you,
Mom, Matt and Mitch

One time, at Vacation Bible School, they had an ice cream social with a piñata. After everyone took their turn hitting it, it was hanging on by a thread. Up walks this blonde haired, brown eyed boy to take his second swing. He took one look at it and knew if he hit the piñata it would come down. He stepped aside and handed the bat to the special needs friend he had been helping all week and said, "Here Drake, you can have my turn." Drake stepped up and hit the piñata and everyone cheered for him as candy went everywhere!! In that very moment, I knew what kind of man my son would become. Dayton, I love you so much and I hope and pray that I have taught you how to love unconditionally, how to give unselfishly, without expecting anything in return, and to go for your dreams no matter how big or small they are. As you go forward in life, just know that I will always be here if you need anything. Now, the only thing left to say is "Go get 'em Coach!!!"

I Love You,
Mom

Melissa,
Congratulations on a job well done.
We are all so proud of what you have achieved and we know that with your work ethic you will continue to reach the goals you set for yourself. So as you graduate and move onto your next chapter in life keep in mind that we are proud of you and will be with you every step of the way. We love you very much.

Mom, Dad, Jose & Albert

Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths. Proverbs 3:5-6

Kelsey,

There are no words to express how much we love you and how proud we are of you at this moment! We are so thankful that the Lord entrusted you to us, and we want to encourage you to continue to keep God first in everything you do; there will be times when others will let you down or disappoint you, but if you will keep your eyes on the Lord and seek Godly council, He will never let you down!

As you begin the next chapter in your life, take a moment and look back at what you have accomplished so far, you are a leader, a role model, someone's friend, and the best daughter and big sister ever!! Oh! And a comedian at times! Set goals, work hard, and have a little fun! Choose a career that you are truly interested in and that makes you happy and you will be successful! Use the gifts and talents that God has blessed you with! Sing, laugh and sing some more!! And if things get too hard just call DADDY! We love you, Doodle bug!

Your biggest fans,

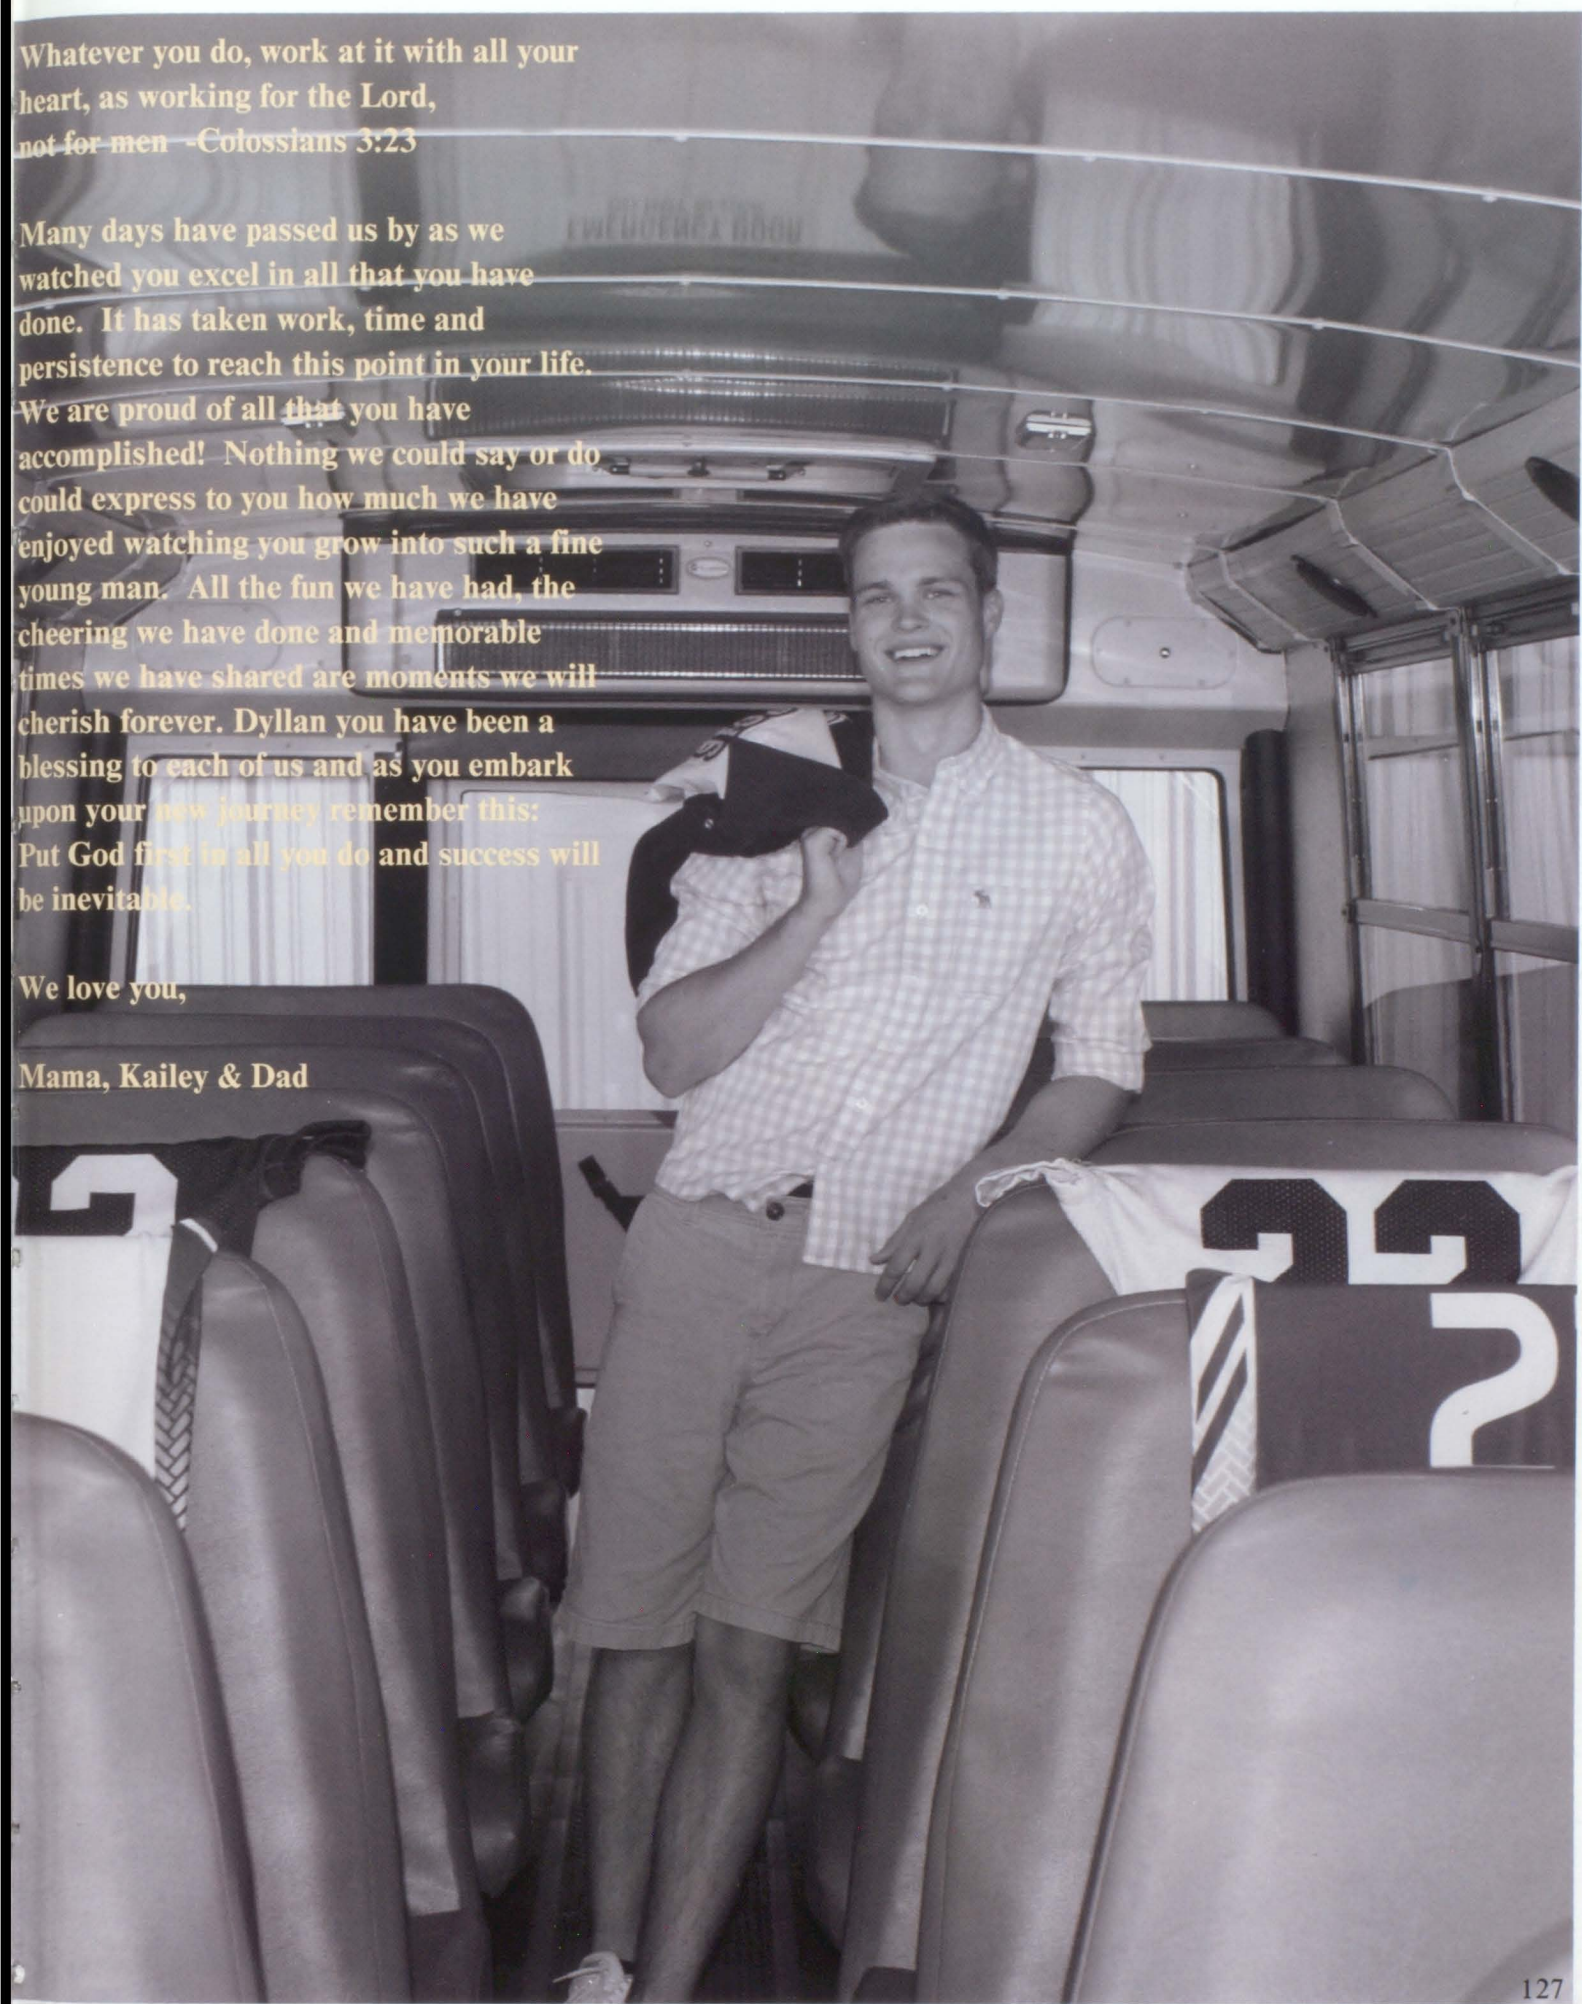

Mom, Dad, Tristan, and Harlee

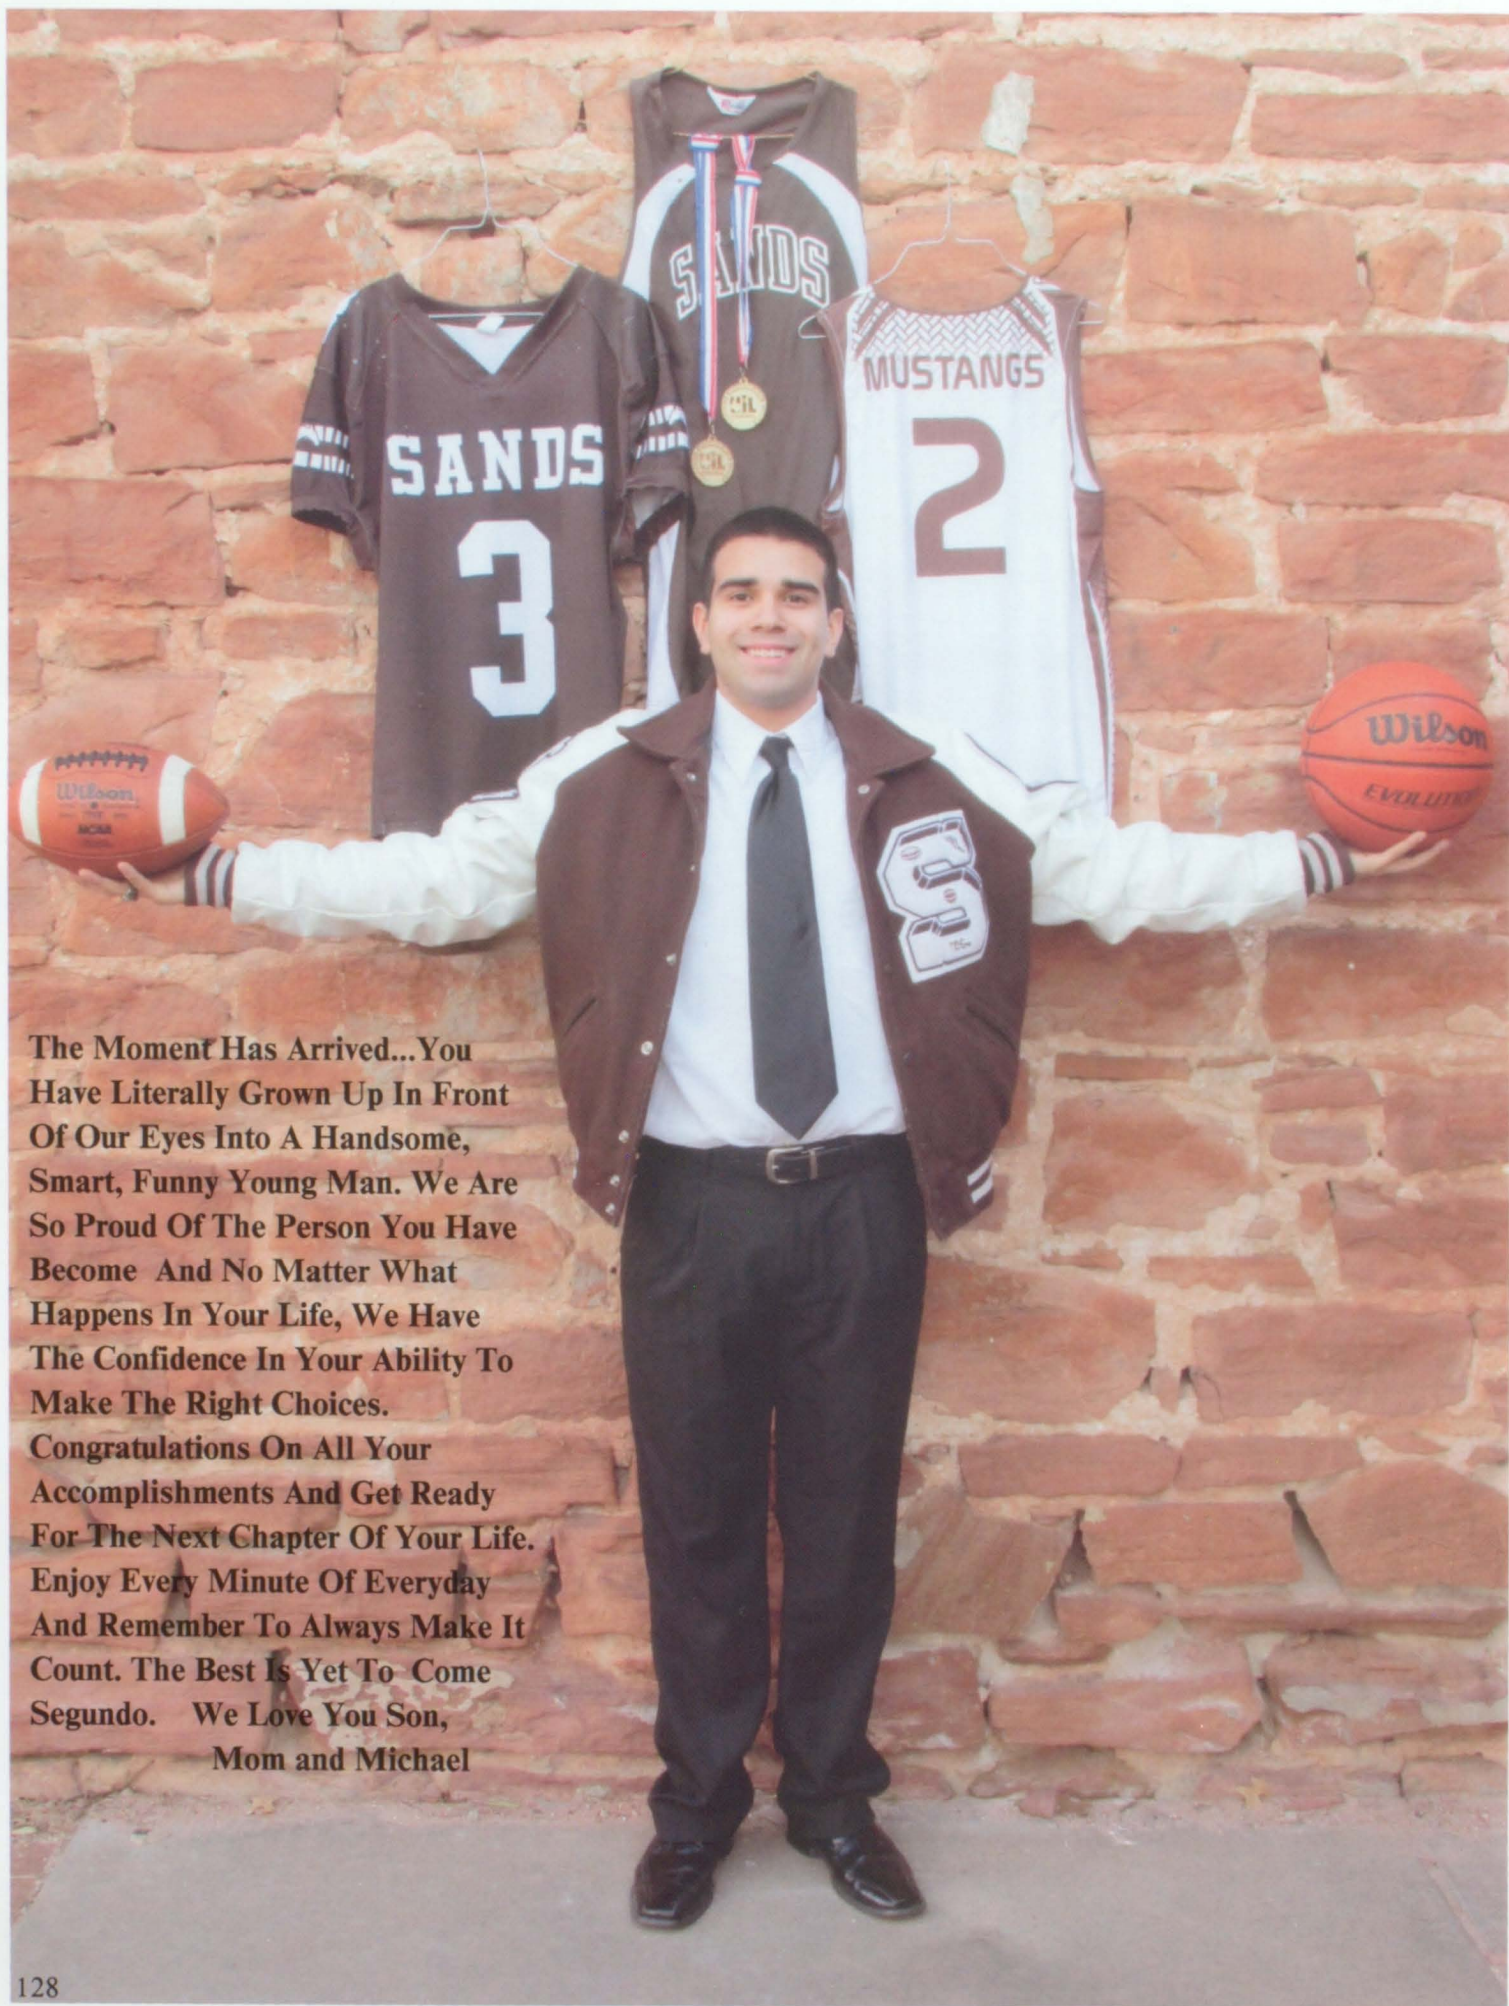

Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for men -Colossians 3:23

Many days have passed us by as we watched you excel in all that you have done. It has taken work, time and persistence to reach this point in your life. We are proud of all that you have accomplished! Nothing we could say or do could express to you how much we have enjoyed watching you grow into such a fine young man. All the fun we have had, the cheering we have done and memorable times we have shared are moments we will cherish forever. Dyllan you have been a blessing to each of us and as you embark upon your new journey remember this: Put God first in all you do and success will be inevitable.

We love you,

Mama, Kailey & Dad

The Moment Has Arrived... You Have Literally Grown Up In Front Of Our Eyes Into A Handsome, Smart, Funny Young Man. We Are So Proud Of The Person You Have Become And No Matter What Happens In Your Life, We Have The Confidence In Your Ability To Make The Right Choices. Congratulations On All Your Accomplishments And Get Ready For The Next Chapter Of Your Life. Enjoy Every Minute Of Everyday And Remember To Always Make It Count. The Best Is Yet To Come Segundo. We Love You Son, Mom and Michael
