

Sands 2016-2017

2016

On this site stood "The Alamo", the school's first gymnasium building dedicated to the students of Dawson, Borden, Martin and Howard County, Texas. A school district composed of portions of these counties was organized nearly a century ago and a school was built and later expanded. Originally built in the WWII era, this unique edifice with its thick stone walls and vaulted shape was one of the first structures erected and was given the nickname by the students of Sands CISD in Ackerly, because of its profile and resemblance to the famous historic Texas landmark.

This monument built with the original stone commemorates "The Alamo" and will be remembered by those who fought to make Sands CISD Home of the Mustangs!

SENIORS 2017

Graduation day is finally here,
And so now ends your high school career.
Always remember the friends you hold dear,
And look toward your future without any fear.

This is the day you've been preparing for Since the day you walked through that first classroom door.

Now it is time to say good-bye, And spread your wings - you're ready to fly.

So shed a tear and share a smile,
And be sure to remember all the while,
That although it may now be time to move on,
Today's memories will last your whole lifelong.

Ish, Cill, Izzy

Juan, we are enormously proud of all that you have achieved. Time flew by so fast, just yesterday you were outside pretending to be a power ranger fighting off villains, with your swords and "super cool powers" (And don't get me started on how you still watch them today :D) and look your graduation is here! You have made us proud of the man you have become and the accomplishments you have achieved, and just know that the future holds wonderful opportunities for you. It is time to celebrate your graduation. Our wish for you is that this life becomes all that you want it to. Your dreams stay big, your worries stay small and that you never need to carry more than you can hold. There's a lot that awaits you, congratulations on this special achievement grad, We LOVE YOU! Best of luck for your future. "Be strong and courageous. Do not be terrified. Do not be discouraged, for the LORD your GOD will be with you wherever you go." Joshua 1:9 Love Mom, Dad, Angelica Michael & Mayra

Laynah LeAnn,

The time has come to celebrate a huge milestone in your life....and it has come far too quickly. The day you started kindergarten seems like yesterday and here you are graduating high school. As parents we were always told, "Don't blink, she'll be grown and moving on before you know it." Well, I guess we blinked. This season in your life is somewhat bittersweet for us, letting go is not easy. We know, however, that you are excited as you move forward into this new chapter in your life and we are excited for you! God has blessed you with amazing gifts and talents, a sweet spirit, and a beautiful smile that lights up the room. Our prayer is that you use all that God has given you to His glory and honor, all the days of your life. As you move forward in this world as an adult, we wish we could tell you that it will always be easy, that you will not have to face heartache and trouble, but that is not the case. You will go through highs and lows, however, we have a great promise that has been given to us by our great God..... John 16:33 says, "These things I have spoken to you, that in Me you may have peace. In the world you will have tribulation, but be of good cheer, I have overcome the world." In all the good and in all the bad, He will never leave you nor forsake you. Keep your eyes on the Author and Finisher of your faith. We love you more than words can say and we are so honored that has God chosen us to be your family! We know that He has amazing plans for you! Jeremiah 29:11 We love you, Baby!

Love, Dad, Mom, Ryston, and Trayven

Kate, (Popcorn Lady)

Forever etched in our memory is that wide-eyed little newborn staring off into the new world as you were swaddled against mom on that glorious summer day in Ackerly. You exploded into this world with personality and have never looked back. Our family has been blessed with you.

Now, high school graduation! How the years pass in a flash. The little girl who used to jam to Queen, Lynard Syknard and good old Classic Rock. My Barca buddy who knew almost the whole team by age 10 is now a young lady. The reasons for parental pride are too numerous to put on paper. While learning at school, you also found time to be involved in Basketball, Track, One Act Play and donned the "Champ" costume as the school's mascot. Through these activities you learned teamwork and endurance. Your Mother and I see you take initiative with confidence and determination, knowing these traits will take you far in life. Keep dreaming and pursuing—never give up.

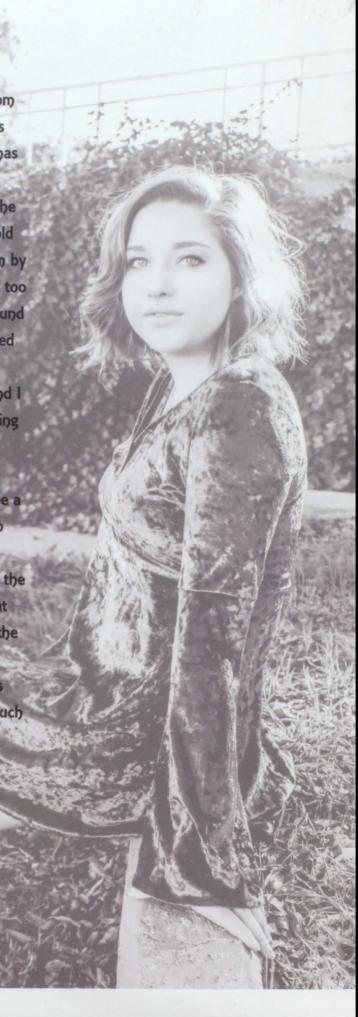

It's been fun to watch you enjoy your senior year. I can't imagine a more spirited senior in your class of 2017. Yet, now it is time to move on.

As Graduation Day approaches, Friday May 19th, will be one of the best days of our lives. Mom and I are so very proud to know that you are truly ready to take on what lies ahead and we have all the confidence and trust in the world you will have a great future.

Always know that you will forever be a part of us—on our minds and in our hearts. We love you and thank you for bringing so much joy into our lives.

All our love on a very special day Mom & Dad

Trevor.

A parent's love can be seen the day their children are born. You have given us love as much as we have given you our love and total heart.

A parent's pride can be seen in their children. You have given us such pride over the years with your many accomplishments and you kindness to others.

A parent's tears of laughter come from their children. You have given us many things to laugh about with your wit and humor.

A parent's joy is when they have seen their children grow up. You have grown into a kind-hearted young man with compassion, joy, fun and adventures.

A parent's hope is when their children become the adults we imagined they would be when they were born. You are what we hoped for you to be, a moral man heading to college with a plan for your future.

A parent's desire is for our children to know God. We have seen you grow up and know God and Jesus, and our desire is for you to always keep them in your mind, heart and soul, and let it show on the outside.

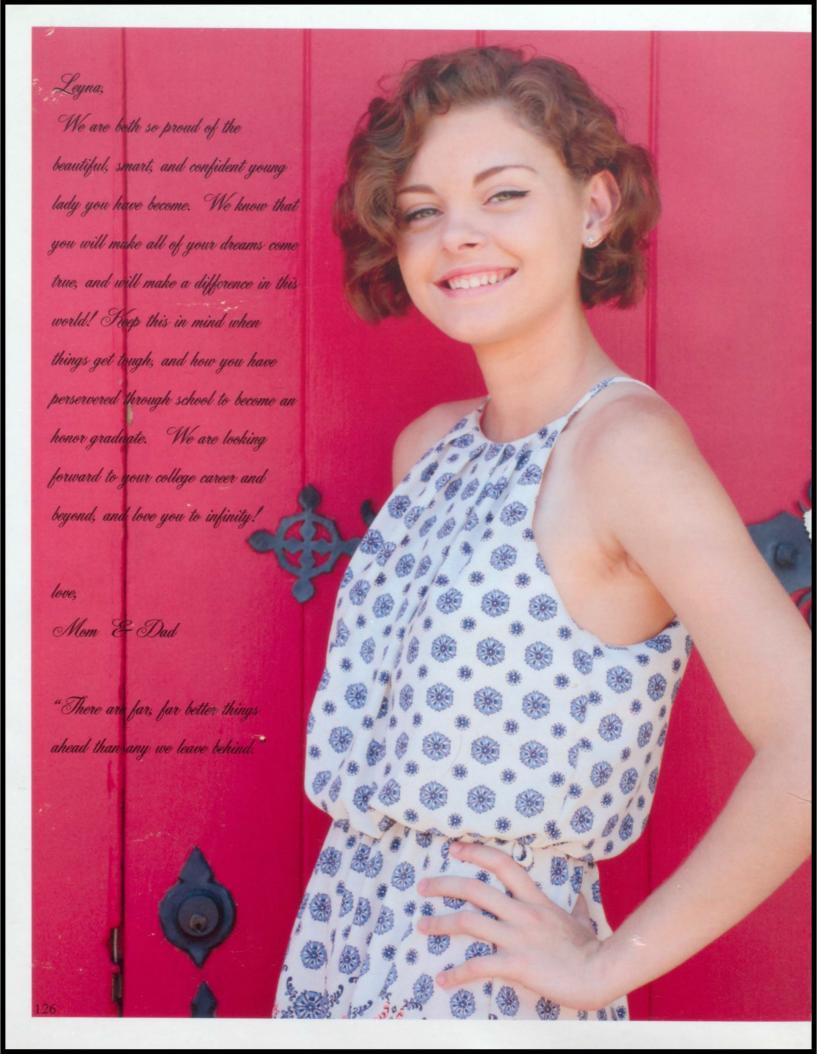

Your Mom and Dad have so much love, pride, tears of laughter, joy, hope and desire for you, that we are excited to see you thrive in your adult life.

We Love you,

Mom and Dad

"Don't let anyone look down on you because you are young, but set an example for the believers in speech, in life, in love, in faith and in purity." 1 Timothy 4:12

Our time together in this chapter of your life has flown by and if we could do it all over again we would! You have been a blessing to each of us in so many ways and we are so proud of the Christian woman you have become.

We will cherish each moment that we have spent cheering for you. We will look back at all the fun we have had supporting you in your academic and sports accomplishments. Life is waiting for you and as you start this new journey remember that your God is faithful.

Proverbs 31:25

She is clothed with strength and dignity, and she laughs without fear of the future.

Love,

Mama, Dyllan & Dad
