

SANDS MUSTANGS

A herd of mustang horses is captured in motion, running through a snowy field. The horses are primarily chestnut brown with white markings on their faces and legs. The background shows a bright, overexposed snowy landscape under a clear blue sky. The overall scene conveys a sense of wild energy and natural beauty.

Graduation Day

by: Catherine Pulsifer

Graduation day is finally here, your dreams you did pursue. All your hard work has paid off, we are so very proud of you. The nights of study, the projects due. You did them all and more too.

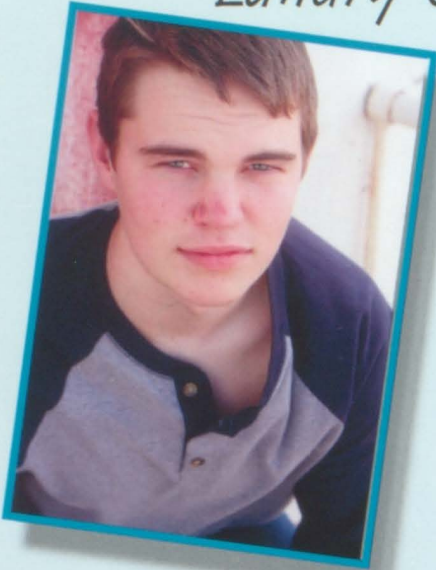

*It has all paid off, your studying is done
We hope you make time to enjoy some fun.
Always remember life is learning journey Keep filling your mind with all that is worthy.*

*May the happiness you feel today Be a feeling you keep as you go on your way.
May life be happy and good to you,
And may you find success in all you do.*

Ryston,

Well, here we are.....graduation!
A huge milestone in your life that you have looked forward to and worked hard for.
Looking back at the first time we walked you to your classroom, we never dreamed that time would fly by so quickly and we would be seeing you walk across the stage to receive your diploma. You are an amazing, smart young man with a personality that draws people to you. Your love for the Lord is evident in your daily life. As you embark upon this new journey, our prayer is that you would always keep your eyes and affection set on Jesus. Regardless of what you may face in life, remember that He will never leave you nor forsake you and His plans for you are great! We are so proud of you! It's truly an honor to call you our son, our brother.
We love you!! Congratulations!
Love, Dad, Mom, Laynah, and Trayven

My son, do not forget my teaching, but let your heart keep my commandments, for length of days and years of life and peace they will add to you.
Let not steadfast love and faithfulness forsake you; bind them around your neck; write them on the tablet of your heart. So you will find favor and good success in the sight of God and man. Proverbs 3:1-4

Mattie,
Time really does fly when you are having fun, and oh what fun we have had watching you these last 4 years. You have made us very proud in all your endeavors in school. But, we are most proud to call you our daughter and Zack's big sister.
Always strive to be the best you can be in all you do. Lean on the Good Lord to help you get thru tough times.
We will always be your biggest fans.
Love,
Dad, Mom and Zack

"The best preparation for tomorrow is doing your best today" -- H. Jackson
Brown, Jr.

Noah,
We cannot believe how quickly time has flown by. You went to high school in the blink of an eye. Though we are not ready for this chapter of your life to be over, we are excited to see what all your future holds. You have always set goals and worked hard to accomplish them so we know you will do great things in life.

Watching you grow into the smart, kind, the considerate man you are, has been a blessing. We could not be any more proud of you! There are no words to express how much we love you.

Love,
Mom, Dad, & Jayden

Layne,

How can it be that our sweet, happy, bald baby is walking across the stage, graduating? Everyone said time will fly and boy has it flown. If life had a pause button, we would have pushed it several times so we could soak in every tiny moment the past 18 years have brought. We would have paused at all your firsts; first word, first step, first day of school, first touchdown, first time you took the theater stage. We would have paused at the lasts too; last tackle, last time in #24 jersey, last time to compete, and then all the other exciting moments in between. We might not have paused on the time you gave a girl a haircut in kindergarten, or the time you broke your arm in football, or some of the strike outs in little league, but we wouldn't delete them either. Every moment, good and bad, has made you the incredible young man you are today.

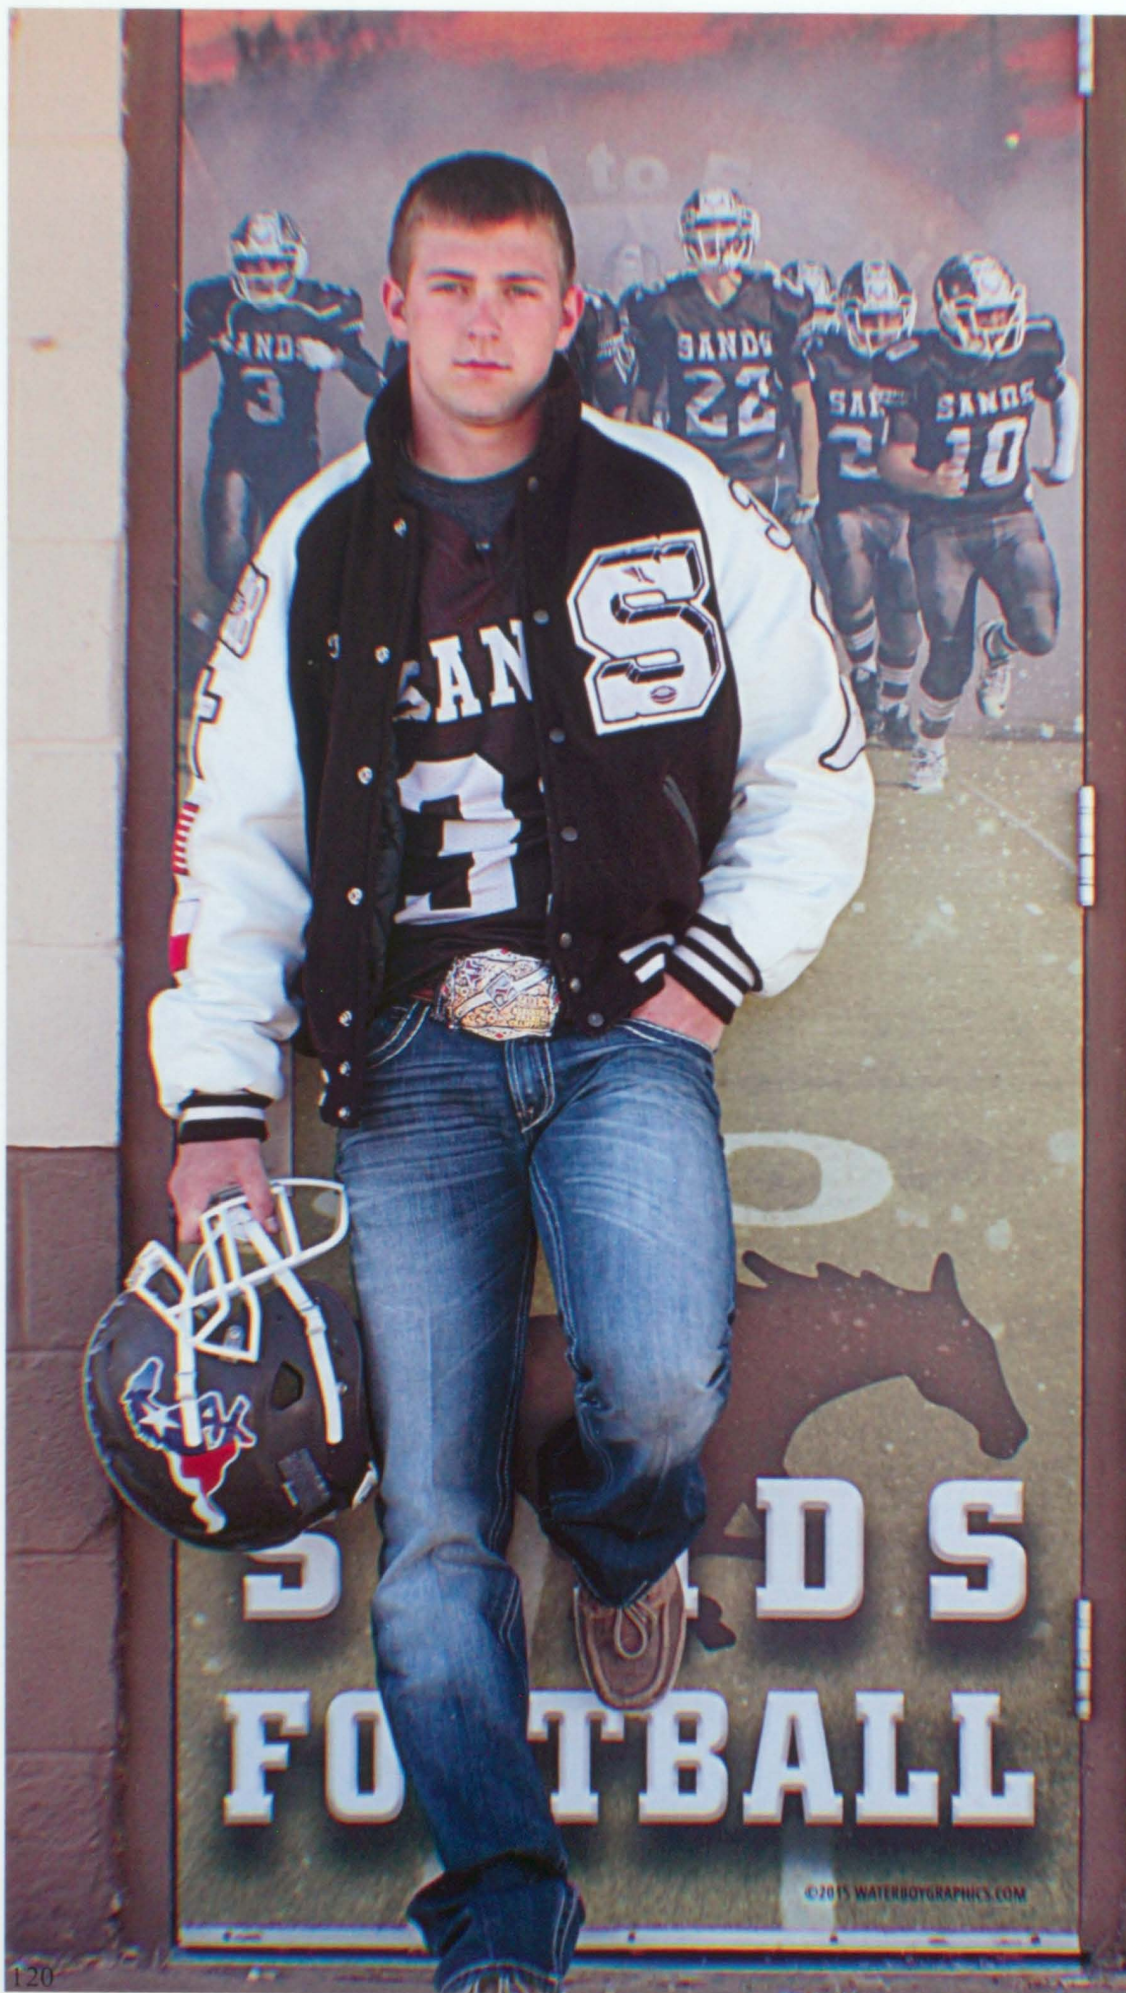

Your years at Sands have been filled with ups and downs, but let's be honest, mostly ups. In all of these moments you have learned your strengths, your weaknesses, your resilience, and just how to be good in a world where things often seem dreary. In every moment you worked hard, never gave up, set goals, persevered, stood your ground, remained kind and tender hearted, stayed positive, and most importantly had God in the center of it all.

So as much as we wished we had a pause or rewind button, we often wished we had a fast forward button as well. We can't wait to see what your future holds whether it be an ice cream truck driver or P.O.T.U.S!

We are so proud of the young man you have become and it brings us great joy to say that you are our son, our brother. Love you more than you will ever know,

Dad, Mom, and Kaylee

Kobyn,

The words of this poem will take you further in life than anything else you have ever been told.

Remember them, try to live by them, and you will succeed in all of your future endeavors.

We love you and are proud of all of your hard earned accomplishments.

Mom, Dad & Brandon.

BE humble enough to realize you still have a lot to learn.

BE ambitious enough to know you can be anything you want to be.

BE easy enough on yourself to enjoy, to laugh, to have fun.

BE mature enough to take responsibility for what you do.

BE confident enough to see that who you are inside is more important than how you look outside.

BE proud enough to take care of your body, your mind, and your spirit.

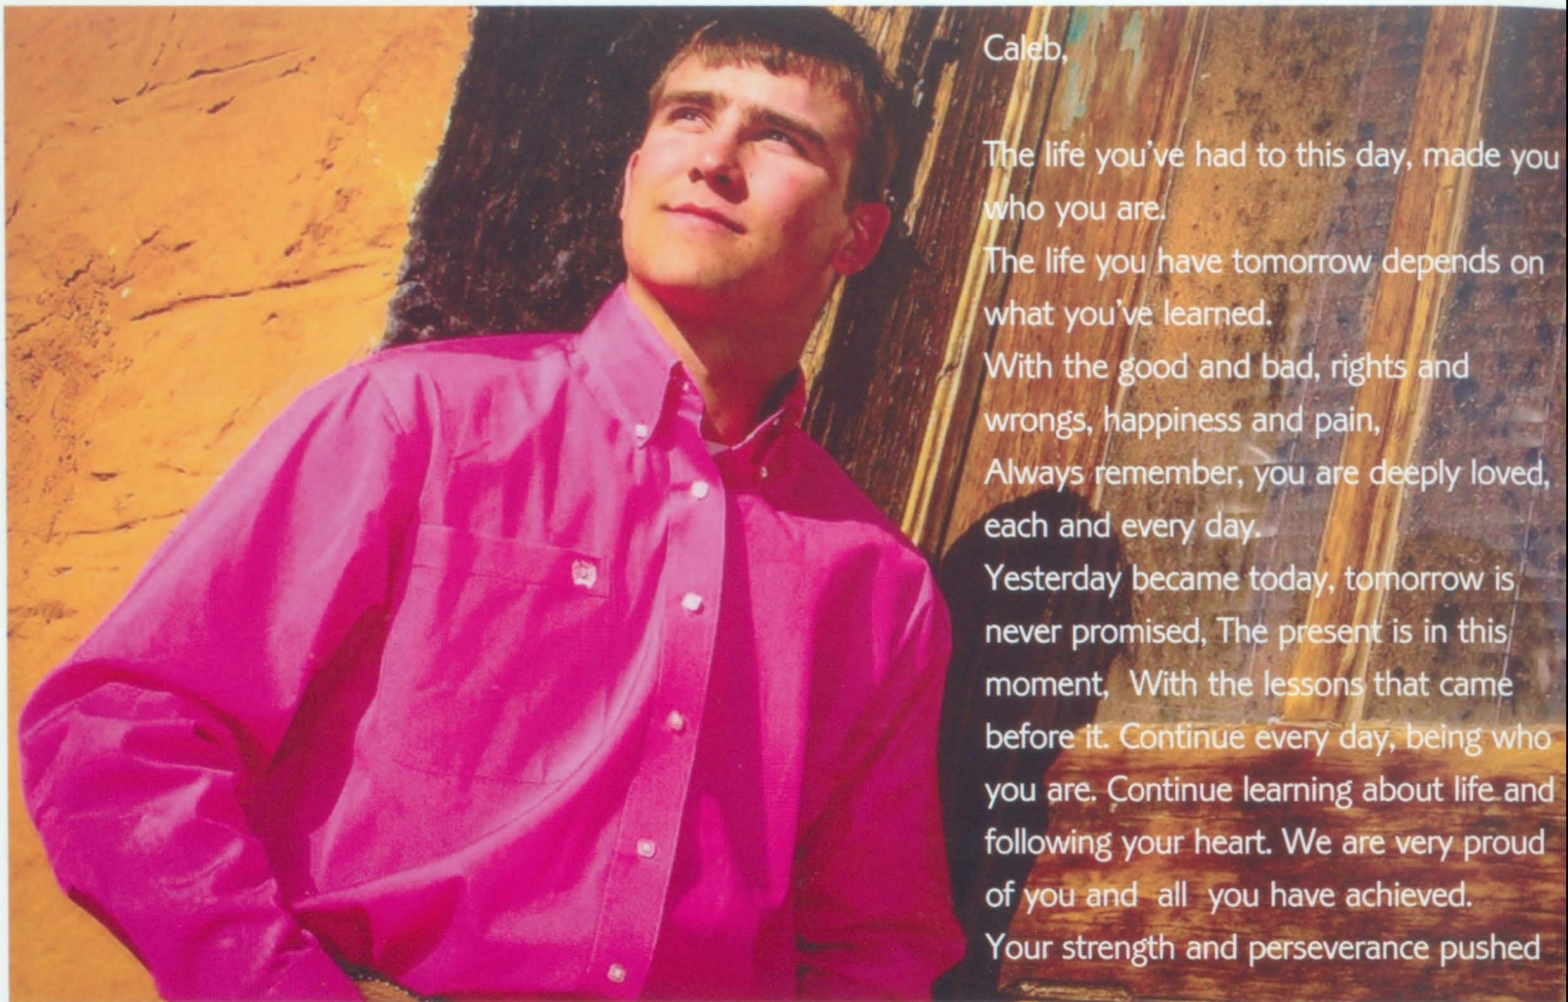

BE wise enough to choose your friends carefully.

*BE absolutely sure that, wherever you go, whatever you do,
YOU ARE LOVED.*

-Author Unknown

Cassie
No Matter which road
you choose No Matter how big you dream Let your heart be your guide
And follow your star's bright beam
Let no obstacles stand in your path Don't ever forget to laugh Lift up your touch, don't be afraid
To set the world aflame
You have a purpose,
dear girl
A destiny that will make heads whirl
Be true to yourself always And love and light will follow all of your days We couldn't be prouder baby girl.
Congratulations!
Mom, Dad, Cody and Katy

Caleb,

The life you've had to this day, made you who you are.

The life you have tomorrow depends on what you've learned.

With the good and bad, rights and wrongs, happiness and pain,

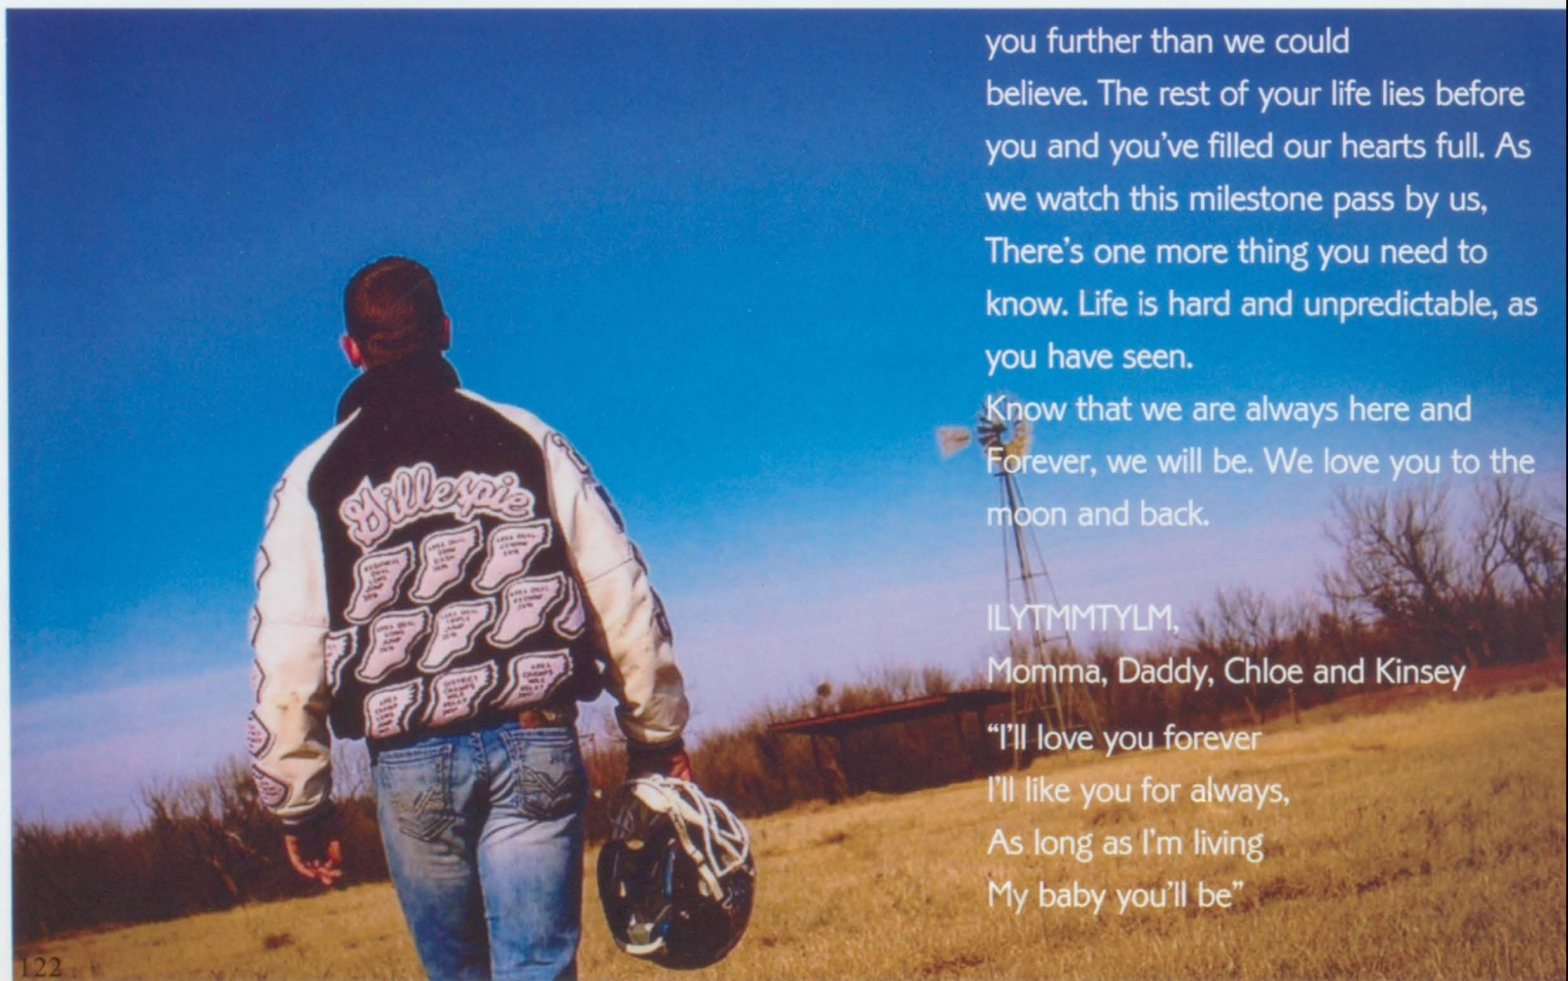

Always remember, you are deeply loved, each and every day.

Yesterday became today, tomorrow is never promised, The present is in this moment,

With the lessons that came before it. Continue every day, being who you are.

Continue learning about life and following your heart. We are very proud of you and all you have achieved.

Your strength and perseverance pushed you further than we could believe. The rest of your life lies before you and you've filled our hearts full. As we watch this milestone pass by us, There's one more thing you need to know. Life is hard and unpredictable, as you have seen.

Know that we are always here and Forever, we will be. We love you to the moon and back.

ILYTMNTYLM,

Momma, Daddy, Chloe and Kinsey

"I'll love you forever

I'll like you for always,

As long as I'm living

My baby you'll be"

Nickolaus,
To start off while tears are rolling as we have watched you grow into the young man you are today. We are so very proud of all of your accomplishments. I can't believe it's already your senior year, how time flies by. It seems like you just graduated from Pre-K yesterday. You have had so many great and fun memories as a student athlete, I know your senior year was not the greatest due to your injury, but it makes us proud from how you fought to come back and finish your athletic career. We can not wait to see what is in store for your future, and we pray you continue to accomplish many things as you get older. We are always here for you to turn to if you ever need help, we love you with all of our hearts and are very proud of you.

Love Always Mama, Pops, & Brother

Dear Sunny, (Boogy)

It took a lot of hard work to reach this point. Take your time celebrating your accomplishments and then get ready to take on the world! Keep taking pictures, let everyone see the world through your eyes. Keep adding to the beauty and goodness in the world. Keep developing those unique talents that make you who you are. Never stop learning, growing and challenging yourself. Always be confident, know your self-worth, and chase your dreams. You are a masterpiece! Be yourself. There is nobody else like you. Your talents and personality are so unique. You have shown the courage to stay YOU and not follow the crowd. Success is determined by how you treat others and how you lead your life. Work hard and get dirty! Surround yourself with people who remind you of how amazing you are and avoid the ones who don't. Don't spend money that you don't have. Credit cards are the Devil!! There will be highs and lows. We are always here to help with the lows. Remember you always have a choice no matter what the situation. Be Kind!!! Good kids still exist. Thank you for being one of those good kids! Thank you for staying on course.

We are ready to step back now (a little) and watch your life unfold. It has been the most beautiful thing in the world watching you grow up! We trust that you will embrace all that life gives you. We have your back!! Home will always be a safe place to heal your wounds and be encouraged and loved. You are our sunshine mixed with a little hurricane!!! You are our world and we love you!!!!

A young man with short brown hair is sitting on a grassy hill. He is wearing a dark blue long-sleeved shirt over a grey t-shirt, blue jeans, and dark sneakers. He is looking towards the camera with a neutral expression. In the foreground, a maroon and white sweatshirt with the word 'Gonnele' in white cursive lettering is lying on the grass. The background shows a line of bare trees under a clear sky.

Landry,

Wow! Where have the years gone. It feels like just yesterday you were sitting in a carrier heading out the door to a basketball game. You were so cute making your motions to learning the alphabet and always wanting to hang around with the basketball players. As time has passed, you grew, way too tall, and became a wonderful loving and caring young man, and who would have thought that basketball would come to be your favorite sport.

It is always said that you can tell if you raised your kids correctly by their actions. I guess Dad and I did a wonderful job. You have grown up to be a wonderful young Christian man that puts others ahead of himself just as Jesus would do. Our desire is that this will always be the case and God is always at the front of everything you do for the rest of your life.

Let God continue to lead you and your path will never go wrong and if it does you know that you can always find your way back to him.

Proverbs 16:9 "In their hearts humans plan their course, but the Lord establishes their steps."

As you head off to college in the next few months continue to let the Lord lead your path. Keep him the center of all your activities and God will continue in helping you through all your valleys. He is the one who is going to help you continue making great choices in a world that is not focused on him as much. We know that you are going to make a great athletic trainer since you already have a caring heart and love to help others no matter the situation. Remember that you must work hard and continue to keep your eyes on the goals that you want to accomplish in the coming years.

II Corinthians 15:7 "But as for you, be strong and do not give up, for your work will be rewarded."

We can not wait to see all that you accomplish! God Bless You Son!

Taylor,

I can't believe this day has come. As a parent, we dream of the day that our children grow up, walk that stage, and start a life of their own. We can only pray that we have done our job, as your parent, to the best of our abilities and to ensure that you are ready to take on that big world and everything it will throw at you. Taylor, you are an amazing daughter, friend, and sister. You love like your Father did. Your compassion and unconditional love is extremely admiring and will take you a long way in life. This is something that people are lacking these days and cannot be taught. You share a love for people like I've never seen in young adults and that makes me very proud. You stand up for others that can not or will not stand up for themselves.

Everything that you are and have become, is such a blessing. I thank God that he chose me to be your mother. Seventeen years ago, I watched your Aunt walk across the stage and cried like a baby because all I could picture was you. I knew that these years were going to fly by like nothing. We take so much for granted, especially our time. Taylor, if you have learned anything over the last four years, I hope it is to just stop sometimes. Stop, look around, see what you have been missing. Life passes us by when we are in a hurry living. Over the last year, we have been through a ton of changes. Some good, some bad. Each has made us stronger and closer as a family. We have learned to take each day as they come and to never take each other for granted because we never know what tomorrow holds. You, my dear, are an amazing daughter and I love you to the moon and back. Congratulations on accomplishing this major achievement and remember that your Dad will be there cheering you on. He wouldn't miss this moment for anything else in the world. He loves you "Tater Tot!!!"

Chris,
We are so proud of the young man you have become. You have a good head on your shoulders and a big heart. You are strong willed and always do what you believe is right. You make us proud every single day. We had so much fun watching you play football. You showed so much love and passion for the game. We couldn't be happier with how hard you worked for it, all the blood sweat and tears that went into it. Now that you are taking the next step forward in life we hope you stay true to your heart and always go after what you want. We know that you can succeed at whatever you set your mind to. You are such a loving and caring person, when you go out on your own don't lose sight of what you believe in. Stay true to who you are, and there is nothing you can't do.

We love you so much,
Mom, Dad, and Manny Cill, Ish, Izzy, and Sophia

My beautiful granddaughter, I wish I could give you the ability to see yourself through my eyes. To see how beautiful you are. To see how much you have grown as a person. To see how you have the ability to light up my life without even saying a word. To see and understand what unconditional love really is, then you would know just how special you are. You have made me so proud. It is time for you to spread your wings and fly. May all your dreams come true.

Proud G-Ma

Today as you graduate, one chapter of your life has closed, and another is about to begin.
The future stands bright before you, so take hold of your dreams, and no matter what, don't let go or give up when you are overwhelmed. When you were a little girl, I held your hand. I guided you and protected you as best I could. It's time for me to let go now. As I look at the beautiful, young woman that you have become, I love you and I pray that my love will sustain you. It's time now...spread your wings and fly!

love,
mom
